Please pray for the Krapes as they minister to young people and families in the various camps. Contributions to support them financially in this endeavor will be accepted through North Hills Bible Church. Please use an offering envelope for the offering plate, or mail your contribution to the church and designate it for the Krapes.

Buck, Cindy and Tanisha Smith, will also be serving the Lord at Servant's Heart Camp this summer. Pray for them as they continue in their walk with the Lord, as well as in their ministry to young people or helping on operational staff.

A GOSPEL MESSAGE FOR YOU

Have you asked Jesus Christ to save you? If not, will you accept Him as your Saviour now? The following will explain what you need to do.

1. ADMIT THAT YOU ARE A SINNER. The Bible says, "For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." Romans 3:23
2. KNOW THAT GOD HAS ALREADY PROVIDED FOR YOUR SALVATION. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16
3. KNOW THAT YOU CANNOT SAVE YOURSELF. "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us." Titus 3:5a
4. REPENT OF YOUR SIN. "For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of." II Corinthians 7:10. "Except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish." Luke 13:3
5. ASK JESUS CHRIST TO SAVE YOU. "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be SAVED." Romans 10:13. "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be SAVED." Acts 16:31
6. CONFESS JESUS BEFORE MEN. "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead thou shalt be SAVED. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." Romans 10:9-10

Library News

by Brenda Hamme, Librarian

This spring as we look forward to new life emerging in God's creation, especially after our challenging winter, let's also be mindful of the New Life available to all who believe on His Son, Jesus, Who willingly died on the cross for our sins and triumphantly arose on the first Resurrection Sunday.

The following new DVDs from THE ANIMATED STORIES FROM THE NEW TESTAMENT series have been added to the library:

Lord, I Believe - This is a collection of three incidents where Jesus teaches His disciples the power of faith. First, a kind Roman centurion kneels before the Master and pleads for his dying servant, whom Jesus heals because he asked in faith with nothing doubting. Second, Jesus has compassion on the poor widow of Nain and raises her son. Third, a man with weak faith begs the Master to make his son whole and Jesus heals the child after saying, "All things are possible to him that believeth."

Signs of the Times - Jesus uses the parables of the King's Wedding Feast and the Thief in the Night to teach His disciples to have humility, to repent, and to be prepared for the day He comes again. Jesus instructs His disciples about the significant signs that will precede His Second Coming. See how the disciples misunderstood the meaning of His parables. Even with these insights, will we also misunderstand the signs of His coming?

Marc & Judie Blackwell

Capetown, South Africa

Greetings from the Blackwells ... still on the road in 2014.

You all have prayed and the Lord has wonderfully blessed! We do thank the Lord for the fellowship we have enjoyed in and with our supporting churches. We are thankful for all the faithful Bible-preaching churches that are standing with us for the Gospel! Summer is now past, Fall came quickly and went by so very fast; now the winter months have come and the "regular furlough" travels continue in the snow. We have visited TN, MI, AK, GA, NJ, PA, MI, IN, NC, FL, and now Alabama. We have visits to two churches in Florida, two churches in W/PA and two churches in CA...to go ...before we hope to depart.

Together with the many visits to our supporting churches we've been checking-up on Judie's Mom in Assisted Care.

Judie and I were recently given a gift of a 1992 Buick in amazingly good condition and it has already been used of the Lord to bless our lives and travels. We appreciate all those so keen and dedicated to be an encouragement to us!, Thank You for your love! Would you want to write ? you can... <drmsbr@mac.com> We'd love hearing from you!

YOUR PRAYERS:

Pray for the development of our "new" job description when we return to South Africa in early March.

PLEASE KEEP PRAYING - FOR >>>

1. Those serving in our place in South Africa! Pray for all our co-workers and for the Cape's Multi-lingual Church Planting Team.
2. Our new efforts in Evangelism, Discipleship & Pastoral Counseling: all tasks of Church Planting - the heart of our ministry.
3. Our need for funds for our Church Ministries Institute library and for used student books - any by Dwight Pentecost and any used Scofield Bibles.
4. Our Church Ministries Institute (CMI) students.
5. For finances for the final construction projects of Paardeberg Mountain Retreat - Christian Camp.
6. Our own spiritual power and our effectiveness and usefulness in Training Pastors & Church Planters through C.M.I.
7. Our efforts at advancing the literal and dispensational interpretation of Scripture through our "Herald of Hope" Ministry.

Bible Exhibit: This is a ministry as the Lord opens doors. They have been in different churches or town halls. They display Bibles from different eras and languages, and the people walk through the explanation about the formation and translation of the Scriptures. Some unsaved people come, and it is used as an evangelistic effort as a Gospel explanation is presented.

Radio Ministry: Radio messages called "Reasons to Believe" started in September 2012. It is a 7 minute message every Wednesday to 60,000 listeners. Moises needs wisdom as he prepares for these brief messages to have a great impact on those that hear.

Roberto & Imelda Livio

The calamities brought about by super typhoon Haiyan/Yolanda last November 8 have caught the whole world's attention. The devastations to life and property resulting to over 6,000 death casualties and thousands still unaccounted for have raised the age-old theological and philosophical question of suffering. We saw corpses in body bags lying along the streets of Palo, next town to Tacloban. Words aren't enough to accurately describe the damage even after two weeks since the storm hit the ground. Being in the middle of it, seeing it firsthand looked, felt and smelled like being in, to use a hyperbole, a God-forsaken place. It was sobering and surreal, to say the least. But we know God does things in harmony with all His other perfect divine attributes. Therefore, His purposes are always good, just, righteous, holy, and sometimes unknown. I think, this "tragedy" would fall under this last category. How assuring are the God-breathed words of the apostle Paul: "God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way of escape, that ye may be able to bear it." I Corinthians 10:13. I am glad He does not have to consult any man before He does His work. In times like these, we are reminded to live not by explanations but by faith in Him and His precious promises.

In God's providence, my wife and I with a church member who speaks the local dialect, were able to arrange our visit to the Vasayan region on November 21, two weeks after the storm hit. So, our goods came when still urgently needed. We arrived in Cebu Thursday morning and got connected to a Christian businessman, a cousin of a pastor friend of mine, who graciously volunteered to drive us around Cebu City - from checking us in for a room; to booking our round trip plane tickets for Tacloban and ferry boat tickets for Ormoc; to taking us to the pharmacy and grocery stores to purchase the medicines, canned good, noodles, bottled water, tents, plus other stuff for basic hygiene. These were communicated to us already via text messaging. Sorting and re-packing ensued that night. November 22, we flew early morning to Tacloban City. We met the Pastor and Mrs. of New Life Baptist Church. We saw people still in survival mode - no food, no water, no electricity. They told us how they survived the storm surge. From what was left of the airport, we immediately saw devastation everywhere all the way to their church/school facility. He drove us also to Palo where we saw unroofed government buildings. On our way back, we were stranded for four hours at the airport while waiting for our Cebu flight. It was God's way for us to plant the Gospel seed to two men. One was a Metro-Manila Development Authority Chairman, whose office sent some 300 men to carry out cleaning up operations. The other was a Filipino businessman helping out too. He trusted Christ as Savior! Early Saturday morning, November 23, we made our three-hour ferry boat ride to Ormoc City where we met the Pastor and his family of Emmanuel Baptist Church. We met six other pastors with some of their family members. We rode the ferry boat back to Cebu that Saturday early evening. After having dinner, a brother drove us back to the airport for our flight back to Manila. Photos and videos of these are all posted at the Foundation Baptist Church facebook page at www.foundationbaptistchurch.org.

The Pastor of Ormoc texted on November 25: "Good morning! How are you? We have distributed the goods yesterday after the church service. Thank you so much for your kindness...manifested through your generosity. God bless and more power!" Again on November 28 he texted: "Thanks too for your prayers. Another Pastor got some share of the goods you have given to us...Our people are indeed so happy and thankful."

Another Pastor communicated on December 2: "Thanks, Pastor and Sis Imelda for your recent visit and the gifts you have shared. We are deeply touched and encouraged..."

On behalf of these brethren, we truly thank all who have donated! We pray that God would reciprocate a hundred-fold your kindness and thoughtfulness.

Jondee and Twinkle tying the knot on December 14 was definitely one of the highlights of 2013. He is our only son, the first to get married among our children. Thus, it was quite an event. We are thankful they are both born again believers. Seeing them witnessing for the Lord and serving Him through their music ministry is such a great joy! Furthermore, it was a wonderful opportunity to present the divine design for marriage from Scripture, explain how sin ruined such a promising relationship and, finally, proclaim God's cure through the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Many of the guests have expressed appreciation for the message, most of whom are friends we have had difficulty inviting to church. We praise the Lord for the opportunity to plant the Gospel seed in them. Please pray with us that God would cause His Word to take deep root resulting in their receiving Christ as Savior.

The Resurrection Message

As I was sitting quietly meditating one day, there came to me "A Call to Ponder." Lamentations 1:12 came to mind. "IS IT NOTHING TO YOU, all ye that pass by?"

Christ asks, "Is it nothing to you that I died for your sins, for the sins of the whole world? That, when I was in the Garden of Gethsemane, the agony was so great the blood flowed from my unbroken skin? That I cried out to God, that if it were possible, He would remove the cup? IS THIS NOTHING TO YOU?"

"They took Me to the Judgment Hall; they stripped Me naked; they placed a mocking robe of purple upon Me; they slapped Me; they spit upon Me; smote Me with a rod; they scourged Me until the blood streamed over My broken body; they put a crown of thorns upon My head; placed a cross upon My shoulders and led Me to Calvary. There they nailed My hands and feet to the cross and lifted Me up for ridicule and mockery! IS THIS NOTHING TO YOU?"

" IS THIS NOTHING TO YOU that I hung for six long agonizing hours, that when all the sins of the whole world had been laid upon Me, I cried out in desperation, 'My God, My God why hast Thou forsaken Me?' IS THIS NOTHING TO YOU that He, looking down upon the awful sight, could stand it no longer and closed His eyes upon the awful scene and turned His back. For three dreadful, long, horrible hours I hung there and suffered for YOU. My blood was shed! Full atonement was made! God was satisfied!"

"I did all this so that ALL men might be saved!
IS THIS NOTHING TO YOU."

"I was buried, for three days and nights in the grave I lay, waiting for the coming day. The third day I arose from the dead! Death could not hold Me. I arose with a mighty triumph over My foes, a victor from the dark domain, and I'll live forever with My saints to reign. IS THIS NOTHING TO YOU?"

HALLELUJAH! FOR THE CHRIST OF THE CROSS!

HALLELUJAH! WHAT A SAVIOR!

May this resurrection message echo and re-echo in your heart,

HE LIVES! HE LIVES!

You ask me how I know He live?

He lives within my heart!

Teen Activities

Directed by Bryan Flohr

Assisted by Russ & Holly Mellinger

We started the year off with boating which was fun and very interesting. The teens enjoyed the time on the water splashing each other and playing games. However, one person fell in the water. The teens did a great job at rescuing the individual. They were so excited that they were able to work together to help a fellow teen. Of course, the need for a rescue came unexpectedly but each teen will remember the rescue and know that they are capable of working together to help someone in need.

The corn maize was something to sit back and watch as the teens worked together to figure out which turn to take. The teens switched responsibilities in the corn maize until they found all the items and the way out. Each teen had a turn at being the leader and making the final decision for the team. Then they headed to the slide and bamboo maize.

Game Night was held in December. The teens had so much fun that they didn't want to leave when their parents arrived. We played several games and a relay race. We also had an ornament competition in which a few teens participated. They were very creative with the ornaments.

We were unable to schedule the Underground Church activity this winter, but the teens went snow tubing instead. It was a bitterly cold evening but the snow tubing was fast and fun.

During or after each activity, time was set aside to have a time of devotion. It is wonderful to see the positive interaction between the teens and how they are growing in the Lord. Their love for the Lord is very evident in their conduct during the teen activities.

Crooked Timbers

Do you consider yourself an evangelist? Jesus does. Spreading the Gospel is the job description of every believer.

How are you doing? Before you quit reading I want you to consider something.

God uses crooked timbers to build His church. He does not leave this job to perfect believers. If He did, it would never get done.

You probably already have a ministry: You take care of your own family. You help your church family. You watch out for your neighbors. You are building relationships at work. God can and does use you in many circumstances - in spite of your mistakes and weaknesses.

Tracts are crooked timbers too. A tract can never truly reflect the scope of God's love. And yet, nothing goes farther, costs less, or says it better than a Gospel tract. Most people have never read a clear presentation of the Gospel.

If you don't already use tracts, I encourage you to try it for a time.

You eat out. Leave a tract when you leave a tip. Be generous - your behavior can turn people off to the Gospel too.

You pay your bills by mail. You don't know the person who opens the mail, but God does - and He has a plan for that person too. Enclose a tract in every piece of mail you send out.

You encounter people going through hard times. Hand them a tract that speaks about suffering, Are you sending a card? Enclose an appropriate tract.

When the store clerk wishes you a good day, thank her warmly and hand her a tract, wishing her a good day too.

Every time you use a tract you give the Holy Spirit new opportunities to work.

Not sure about using tracts? Try it for a month. Give out one tract a day for 30 days. Add it to your prayer list: "God use me to get this message into the right hands today." At the end of the day, pray: "God I pray that the message I gave out today will accomplish Your will."

Suppose It Is True After All? What Then?

Two friends were discussing the question of punishment for sin in a future life. They decided that Hell was a myth, and that God was a God of love and could not send men to everlasting punishment.

Overhearing this conversation a Christian merely said: "Suppose it is true after all?"

The words seemed to fall on the ears of the two men with crushing force.

Suppose it is true after all! If it were all untrue, the believer has the best of it in this world, and is no worse off in the next. But if it is true after all, how terrible will be your doom if you "die in your sins".

Preschoolers

taught by Mrs. Moss

Our memory work is John 14:1-6. Our class lessons and memory work is on a two year cycle. The children come into our class when they turn two years old and graduate after kindergarten. That means that they get to go through the cycle twice. It is good to have the material repeated as they often forget what they learned when they first came into the class at age two. But this time David Wertz did remember all of John 14:1-6 from when he was three years old, and so he was given an extra passage to work on too. Esther Wertz remembered much of it also and only had to do a little review. We are blessed to have parents who work with their children in doing this memorization. The passages they are learning now will stick with them throughout their lives.

Primaries

taught by Mr. and Mrs. Smith

The Primary class continues their study of the life of Abraham. We looked at how Lot was so drawn into the things of the world around him. We realized that Lot and his family could have been a witness in the city where they lived. When it came down to it the family turned to things of the world instead of being lights for God. We will continue to study how God blessed Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

We are learning the Books of the Old and New Testament. Many already know them and so we are having sword drills to become familiar as to where the books are located in our Bible. We had to do something that they do in quizzing. If you are first three times in finding the book your seat gets frozen. Hannah Wertz gets hers frozen every time!

We are also memorizing 3 verses from I Corinthians 15.

Juniors

taught by Mr. and Mrs. Cook

Over the last several months, many of our lessons on the ministry of Christ have been about His miracles. Blind men, like Bartimaeus, received their sight; others, like Jairus and the nobleman, had sick loved ones restored to life and health; hungry people were fed with just a few loaves and fish; and the disciples saw Jesus power over nature as He walked on water and commanded the sea to be still.

These lessons help us to remember that we serve the one, true God Who created the world, and controls it with just His Word. In our next group of lessons, we will be studying some of the parables Jesus taught.

We'd like to say, "Job well done" to Matthew Kanost and Charles Balcom for memorizing Luke 2: 1-16. We are currently working on memorizing the parable of the seed and the sower and are hoping to be able to sign a lot of it by the time of our Children's Program in May.

Master Clubs

Director - Nathaniel Wertz

This has been an exciting year in Master Clubs. We start every evening with some songs, and the pledges to the Bible, the American flag, and the Christian flag.

The two younger groups join together for a game time. The games often involve a puzzle to solve, or a little strategy, while giving the children a chance to get their wiggles out.

During the lesson time, the first through third graders have been studying various topics including the fruit of the Spirit, examining what different words mean, and how we should be living. It has been impressive to see the children's desire to learn the Scriptures and grow in Christ.

Quizzing

by Quiz Coach, Mrs. Moss

In our study of I Peter this year we are learning what it means to "be holy in all manner of conversation". (I Peter 1:15) Each week as we study the next section of five verses we talk about what those verses say to give us a better understanding of living a holy life. It is so encouraging to hear the teens express the application of these verses in present day situations.

We are well into the competition part of the quizzing cycle for this year. It is challenging to recall the studied material quickly and respond just as quickly. It has been a blessing to see each of our quizzers answering questions correctly when put to the test. May these verses come to mind just at the right moment in life's circumstances for many years ahead.

The last Saturday in April will be our final competition for the year. Our team will start out in the morning with some review and practice over all of I Peter. The competition with the other church teams will take place in the afternoon, followed by games, supper, and an evening rally. It is an all day event that we look forward to each year. We enjoy the casual fellowship with teens from other churches as well as the nerve wracking competition as teams are eliminated throughout the afternoon, leaving the top three teams to challenge each other in the evening rally.

Spectators are an encouragement to the teens that are participating. You are welcome to join us at 1st Baptist Church in Lebanon at 1:00 PM, and show your support for teens that are willing to take time in the study of God's Word.

HOMESCHOOL NEWS

Led by Dawn Balcom

The K-1st grades are continuing in their study of the seven continents and learned about Antarctica in January. They learned about penguins in the story time and made a penguin craft. They enjoyed playing games and making houses out of foam squares in gym time. February classes were cancelled due to snow. In March we learned about Australia.

The middle group, 2nd - 5th graders, are continuing to identify and classify trees. They have worked on a variety of art projects including folding and cutting paper into hearts and different shapes. For gym they used foam squares to make an obstacle course.

The 6th-12th grade group is continuing in their study of Pennsylvania history. They finished some information on Native Indians and each one is continuing to work on their report of an important Pennsylvanian, which they will present in May at the project fair. They have also begun learning some Pennsylvania symbols and continue to learn more sign language each month and do review games to practice these.

For the January field trip everyone enjoyed a fun morning of roller skating. In February they took a tour of the Sturgis Pretzel factory in Lititz and enjoyed learning about the history of pretzel making and even got to practice shaping a pretzel. They also toured the Wilbur Chocolate factory nearby. In March they visited Wallace-Cross Mill.

The teacher at Sunday School had just read the story of how God created man. She asked the class if they had any questions. Little Bobby raised his hand and piped up: "My dad says we come from monkeys." Sweetly, the teacher replied; "Bobby, let's talk about your family problems after class."

MASTER CLUBS GAME TIME

Game Time leader, Nate Moss, comes up with creative games and explains them to the clubbers.

Blue and Red teams racing against each other.

When game time is over:
equipment needs to be put away,
and it's time to line up for book time.

MASTER CLUBS BOOK TIME

The Ambassadors, grades 4-6, are learning to be ambassadors for Christ. An ambassador lives in a foreign country, is a spokesman for his home country, represents his sovereign, and always desires to bring glory to his sovereign. In club they have Scripture memory, Bible study, learn to give their testimony, and learn about missionaries. They are encouraged to show Christian love, learn to serve their Master, have daily devotions, and other practical Christian growth.

The 1st thru 3rd graders are Lookouts, Spotters, and Scouts. In club they have a Bible lesson and learn what the Bible is about, the church, missions, being good servants and soldiers for God, witnessing, and living for God.

The goal is for them to develop spiritual values and apply God's Word to their lives.

The Little Lambs learn about God, creation, Jesus, heaven, the Bible, and prayer.

Children in all the groups can earn badges to put on their award vests as they complete the projects in their books.

Ladies Missionary Project

The ladies enjoyed gathering on a Saturday morning to prepare a mailing for Servant's Heart Camp, and to prepare all the supplies needed to make Wordless Book bracelets. The Wordless Book bracelets items were packaged in groups of 50 for people to take and make up at home. The string had to be cut in 12 inch lengths and counted into groups of 50, and each of the colored beads had to be counted out in 50's. It is hard to count and talk at the same time without losing count, so the ladies doing the mailing got to talk, while those counting listened :-). These bracelets will go to several of our missionaries. Time was taken to pray for our missionaries specific requests, and our fellowship concluded with lunch together.

Black = sin
Red = Jesus blood
White = cleansing from sin
Gold = heaven
Green = growing in Christ
